

Wild Eco Retreats Waiver

The hamlet is here for your enjoyment, relaxation and rejuvenation. Whilst this is a very special place, as with all rural areas, it is important that you are mindful of your surroundings and take care in your day to day activities, be they yoga, hiking, using the pool or preparing food in the kitchens. By way of example, we have highlighted some specific areas for your awareness and ask that you take responsibility for your personal wellbeing during your stay.

Walking in the hamlet & the surrounding forest

Please keep to the cleared paths and wear suitable clothing and foot wear that cover your feet and ankles in the forest. Being in the Midi-Pyrenees, there are many steep areas around the pathways, so please be mindful of this. Take care in high winds with risk of branches and roof slates falling. We recommend that you avoid walking in the forest if high winds occur and take extra care near the buildings of the hamlet.

Use of the pool: Do not dive in to the pool, it is only 1.1 meters deep. Please do not walk around the edge of the pool - stay on the fully decked areas where there is no risk of falling on to the lower area.

Use of the kitchens / electrical appliances: Please do not leave cooking food unattended and check all appliances are switched off after use. If the microwave is used, please ensure that no metal objects are placed inside. If light bulbs need changing, please inform us and we will assist. There are fire extinguishers in each kitchen in case of emergency. For emergency services dial: 112.

Cherry room terrace of the Mason D'Hote: Please use chairs / deckchairs provided in the hamlet and do not sit, lie or stand on the terrace wall.

Please read the following statement and sign below:

I understand that it is my responsibility to maintain the safety of my person and my belongings during my stay at Lorry. In consideration of being permitted to stay within the hamlet, I agree to assume full responsibility for any risks, injury or damages, known or unknown, which I might incur as a result of my stay. I knowingly, voluntarily and expressly waive any claim against Wild Eco Retreats, and namely Luisa Pask and Piers Marquis, for injury or damages or loss of property that I sustain during my stay at Lorry.
